

Find out how A Place for Parents can help you

Free and Confidential

Making a lifetime of difference to
children in schools

A Place for Parents is a free, confidential counselling service, offered to all parents and carers at your child's school and at some children's centres.

It gives parents and carers the opportunity to speak to a qualified parent counsellor about any concerns or worries they might have about their children, themselves, the family, their home or work life.

The service is run by Place2Be, the leading UK provider of school-based counselling services.

We have supported thousands of parents and carers. To find out more about A Place for Parents, please contact:
